MDCCCXCVII.

JOURNAL.

First Day.

KOKOMO, IND., March 24, 1897.

The fifty-fourth session of the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was opened, at 8:30 A. M., on Wednesday, March 24, 1897, in the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Kokomo, Ind., Bishop Stephen M. Merrill presiding. A hymn, specially prepared by Rev. Tom C. Neal, was sung. The Bishop then read, for Scripture Lessons, the 55th chapter of Isaiah and the 10th chapter of Romans, and announced Hymn No. 256:

"The Head that Once Was Crowned with Thorns."

Brothers F. T. Simpson, N. H. Phillips, A. Greenman and M. Mahin were called forward by the Bishop, who prepared the table for the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, while the hymn was being sung, and afterwards assisted the Bishop in the consecration of the elements, and administered the same. The Bishop closed the Sacramental service and offered extempore prayer.

Will of J. C. Mahin.— The following in regard to the bequest of the late John C. Mahin to this Conference, was read by C. U. Wade :

Whereas, It appears that John C. Mahin, late a member of this North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, bequeathed to this Conference at the death of his widow, certain lands in Tippecanoe county, and State of Indiana, described as follows, to-wit: Lot nine (9) and so much of the north part of Lot sixteen (16), as belongs to me, the same being a part of the East half of the southeast quarter of School Section 16, T. 24, N. R. 4 West, to be divided by said Conference between the Educational and Church Extension Societies of said N. I. Conference, on condition that the said Conference pay to each of his two children or their living heirs, viz.: Mrs. Harriet A. Reed and John C. Mahin, Jr., the sum of one hundred dollars in cash; and,

Whereas, It appears that these children of the late John C. Mahin are in very poor health and are in almost destitute condition, and have very strong tendencies to consumption; and,

Whereas, There is no Educational Society of the North Indiana Conference to receive such bequest should it come to us; therefore,

Resolved, That this Conference instructs the President and Secretary of the Conference Corporation to relinquish all claims to said lands, and in behalf of the Conference and the Church Extension Society of the Conference to give a quit claim deed in favor of said children of John C. Mahin to Mrs. Lasa Mahin

Bailey, in consideration that the lands be sold as soon as practicable, and the proceeds be equally divided between the aforesaid children of the late John C. Mahin; and that this resolution be incorporated into the deed to be given.

C. U. Wade, George H. Hill, C. H. Brown,
G. N. Eldridge, E. L. Semans, W. O. Pierce.
E. F. Hasty,

On motion, the resolution was adopted.

Time was extended.

Select Number.— The Select Number in the case of Walter D. Smith, made the following report:

Kokomo, Ind., March 24, 1897.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:— Your Select Number in the case of Rev. Walter D. Smith, make the following report:

We, the Select Number, met, organized and heard the charges and specifications, and the finding of the Committee of preliminary examination read.

In view of the fact that the said charges and specifications were not sustained by said Committee, and in view of the improbability of their being sustained before us; and in view of the fact that Bro. W. D. Smith has already suffered a suspension for imprudence, and further, that he is ready to ask for a location, and the charges being withdrawn, we recommend that his character be passed, and that he be granted a location, at his own request.

C. E. Davis, R. H. Smith, A. G. Neal, R. C. Jones,
D. H. Guild, C. Tinkham, J. B. Alleman, S. Light,
Eli Davis, F. A. Fish, J. M. Stewart, A. Cone,
J. P. Chamness, R. S. Reed, M. A. Harlan.

Signed, by order of the Select Number, W. M. Nelson, Sec'y.

On motion of B. A. Kemp, the recommendation of the Select Number was adopted, and W. D. Smith was granted a certificate of location, at his own request.

Committee of Inquiry.— The Committee of Inquiry in the case of J. H. Walters, made the following report:

The Committee of Inquiry, to whom was referred the case of J. H. Walters, report, That we had the parties before us, and, after hearing all the testimony, we find, that there is no evidence of immorality, or of such a high degree of imprudence as would justify any action on the part of this Conference. But there was the appearance of testimony tending to show indiscretion on the part of J. H. Walters; and it is the judgment of this Committee that the present arraignment of the brother is a sufficient rebuke and admonition therefor. We therefore recommend that no further action be taken.

Henry W. Bennett, C. King, J. T. Fettro,
D. G. Murray, John W. Lowry, F. M. Lacy.

The report was adopted.

George B. Johnson.— George B. Johnson, Cashier of the Book Concern at Cincinnati, Ohio, was introduced, and announced that he would be glad to meet the members of the Conference.

15. New York Book Accounts.

J. A. Lewellen, Chairman.

A. E. Mahin, Secretary.

Report adopted.

Resolution. — The following resolution was introduced :

Resolved, That the Committee on Education be instructed to name in their report a Committee of three members of this Conference, who shall ask for the appointment of a like Committee by the Indiana and Northwest Indiana Conference; these Committees to confer with the Faculty and the Board of Trustees of DePauw University relative to any arrangement that can be effected to include in the Course of Studies in the University, the Conference Course of Study; also, to provide for a Post-Graduate or Non-Resident Course of Study, if practicable.

C. King,
S. Light,
H. J. Norris.

Adopted.

Investigating Committee. — The Committee of Investigation in the case of J. H. Harwell, made the following report :

We, your Committee, to which was referred the case of Rev. J. H. Harwell, find, That the said Rev. J. H. Harwell, being under complaints and accusations affecting his character and standing in the Church and Ministry, did present, on the 17th of December, 1896, to his Presiding Elder, the Rev. A. E. Mahin, his withdrawal from the ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

We also find that at the time of such withdrawal and at the time of the commital of the acts alleged against him, he was insane, and was afterward so adjudged by the properly constituted authorities of the State of Indiana.

We, therefore, recommend that his withdrawal be not received, and that his character pass, and that he be given a supernumerary relation.

We, also, recommend that his Presiding Elder be requested to secure the credentials of the Rev. J. H. Harwell and retain them until the Rev. J. H. Harwell may be adjudged of a sound mind.

Committee :
A. Greenman, Chairman.
S. C. Norris,
J. W. Welch,
H. A. Davis,
J. B. Ford,
W. H. Peirce,
M. F. Stright, Secretary.

On motion, the report was adopted, and J. H. Harwell was made supernumerary and referred to the Board of Stewards as a necessitous case.

Resolutions. — The following resolution was introduced and adopted :

Resolved, That Brother Milton Mahin be requested and appointed to prepare, as far as possible, a full report of the names, age, time of death, or any other information desired, that may be obtained respecting all of the preachers' wives of the North Indiana Conference, since its organization; and that these names be recorded in the Minutes of our Conference as a Memorial Roll, in memory of these good women of other years, who "took the spoiling of their goods cheerfully," having, some of them, long ago, passed to their rest.

R. D. Spellman,
E. F. Hasty,
Thomas Stabler.

Also the following resolution :

Whereas, The Book Concern at Cincinnati has published a Booklet on the "Uses of Suffering," written by Dr. G. W. H. Kemper, an esteemed layman, living within the limits of this Conference; and,

Whereas, We believe such Booklet to be a valuable contribution to the Literature of the Church, and especially calculated to give light and comfort to those troubled by the perplexing problems of human suffering and discipline; therefore,

Resolved, That we heartily commend this work to our people, and will do what we can to encourage its circulation among them.

George H. Hill, C. W. Lynch,
L. M. Krider, H. N. Herrick.

Adopted.

Resolved, That the Secretary of this Conference be hereby directed to communicate, under the Conference Seal, to the Board of Bishops, at their autumn meeting, the earnest request of this body, that our next annual session be appointed not earlier than April 1, 1898.

REPORTS.

THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

This Society commends itself to the confidence and support of the Church by its eighty-one years of glorious history, in which it has presented and circulated sixty-three million copies of the Bible in the home and foreign fields.

The General Conference, at its recent session in Cleveland, after expressing regret at the widespread, but erroneous report, that the Society is wealthy, and, therefore, not in need of help, and lamenting the large falling off in contributions, adds:

"It is manifest that the contributions to the Society ought to be increased. Our own church OUGHT, AT THE VERY LEAST, TO DO TWICE AS MUCH during the coming as in the past quadrennium. We do not believe that there is a lack of interest on the part of our Church in the work of the Society. Each General Conference, for the past half century, has commended it and directed the pastors to take collections for it, but the multiplication of collections has pushed the claims of the Society aside."

The following resolutions were then unanimously adopted:

Resolved, 1. That this General Conference gives its hearty approval to the American Bible Society.

Resolved, 2. That we regard it as a strong bond between evangelical churches, doing the work of all, without denominational distinction.

Resolved, 3. That its great work in foreign lands commends it to our support, as a most efficient aid in the prosecution of foreign missions.

Resolved, 4. That we urge on all pastors not to omit the collection for the American Bible Society from the list of collections which they are charged to take, but to present to their congregations the duty of giving liberally for the support of this most worthy and important cause.

In presenting this report the Rev. Dr. Drees, of the South America Conference, said:

"There is not a country in all this hemisphere—in all Latin America, in all Spanish and Portuguese America, in all this continent, that has not been touched, traversed, enlightened by the agents of the American Bible Society. They have gone out beyond the range of the missionary activities of our church, and we are on the stretch to keep after them, to keep them at least in sight."

Therefore, Resolved, 1. That one hundred dollars be apportioned to each District for this cause.

Resolved, 2. That we endorse the work of Rev. W. J. Vigus, D. D.; that we will welcome him to our charges, and heartily co-operate with him in this important interest.

T. H. C. Beall, Secretary. R. D. Spellman, President.

AMUSEMENTS.

It is a source of deep regret that there is among some of our people, the middle aged, as well as the young, a tendency to engage in questionable amusements in violation of the spirit of Christianity, and the Discipline of the Church as well, such as the dance, card playing, attending horse races and theaters and such like, all of which have an evil tendency and tend to counteract the work of saving souls. We believe it to be the duty of every pastor to seek, by any and all proper methods, to dissuade our people from engaging in any diversion which is contrary to the Spirit which actuated the Master.

We declare our sympathy with all organizations that seek to elevate mankind, socially, intellectually, and spiritually, yet we regard the Church of Christ, above all other organizations, as a teacher of morals and social purity.

W. M. Nelson,
U. S. A. Bridge,
C. E. Davis.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

The Committee appointed to audit the accounts of the Secretaries, and also the reports from the Districts on the Sustentation Fund, would report as follows:

1. We find the accounts of the Secretaries to be correct, and that the Conference is indebted to them to the amount of $28.60, which we recommend to be raised by a collection.

2. We have examined statements and vouchers from the Presiding Elders of Fort Wayne, Muncie, Goshen and Kokomo Districts, and find them correct.

3. We have examined a statement from the Treasurer of the Warsaw District, and suppose it to be correct.

4. We have had no report from the Richmond District.

5. We think it proper to incorporate in our report the following complimentary reference to Ministers and Secretaries of our Conference by the Committee on Itineracy of the last General Conference. Mr. Bamford, for that Committee, writes: "I find the within Minutes of the North Indiana Conference for the quadrennium, 1893–1896, to be correct as per requirements of the Discipline (paragraph 31, appendix to edition of 1892). I am sure the thanks of the North Indiana Conference are due its Secretaries for the admirable manner in which they have recorded and preserved its proceedings."

J. W. Cain, Secretary.

We, the Committee appointed to audit the accounts of the Conference Treasurer, hereby report that, having examined his accounts, we find them to be correct. We also find that, under the rule requiring that no report of cents shall appear in the Minutes, there is left in the Treasury the sum of nine cents, subject to the order of the Conference, which sum we most respectfully recommend be donated to the Treasurer as a slight token of our appreciation of his arduous and painstaking labors.

J. W. Cain,
F. M. Stone.

COMMITTEE ON BOOK CONCERN.

We rejoice in the steady increase and success in business that our agents report, and in the increase of capital and annual sales reported; because, with many other things indicated, more will be added to the annuity of our superannuated ministers.

We have examined the accounts with members of the Conference, and find that while many of the brothers pay their accounts with the concern with commendable promptness, we regret to note that a considerable number make but partial payments, and a few of the brethren fail to adjust any part.

In view of the liberal credit given and the dividends now being paid by the publishing houses for the superannuated ministers, all should give careful attention to the prompt payment of their accounts.

We rejoice that we have the Western Christian Advocate, and regard it one of the very helpful means for good in our pastoral work, and as such we would like to see it placed in all the Methodist homes in our charges.

We commend the new form, but would recommend that the outside be put in a more attractive dress, and enough appropriate advertising matter be added to pay the additional expense.

We also suggest that more attention might be given to the special religious columns, with profit to the readers, and that the horizon show us more of the signs of the religious skies.

We congratulate the editor in securing the assistance of our brother and associate in Conference relation, Rev. F. G. Brown, Ph. D., and we will look with hopeful anticipation to his success as assistant editor of the Western Christian Advocate.

We will faithfully present the helpfulness of the paper to our people in their religious life, and will, at all proper times, urge them to subscribe for it, that they may be brought into active sympathy with all of our great connectional interests. We commend the decided stand the editor, Rev. D. H. Moore, D. D., has taken on the rights of our sisters in the General Conference, and recommend faithfulness to the end.

We recommend to our people steady loyalty to our Methodist publishing houses, and urge upon them the duty of patronizing them for all needed supplies in Church, Sunday School and Epworth League.

We will rejoice when it is thought advisable by the Committee on Publications to reduce the price of the Western Christian Advocate to the sum of one dollar per year.

COMMITTEE ON BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your Committee is sorry to report that there has been a decrease in the amount raised for the General Society, during the year of 1896, of $18,685.89 from the amount contributed in 1895. To this general collection our own Conference has contributed as follows: In 1895, we raised $2,315; in 1896, $2,148; in 1897, $1,791. This year we collected $357 less than last year, and last year represented a falling off of $167 from the year before. In view of the fact that this Conference has received, in the last twenty years, aid in donations amounting to $6,600, and in loans $8,850, and during this period thirty-two of our churches have received aid from the Society, the stringency in money matters makes it more difficult for needy churches to secure help from local sources. They are more dependent than ever on the Church Extension Society. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we urge on every pastor the need of giving special attention to this alarming falling off in collections, by making every effort to bring up the apportionment, in full, for next Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

M. C. COOPER, Chairman.
A. S. PRESTON, Secretary.
H. LACY,
I. W. SINGER,
ALFRED E. SARAH,
J. F. BAILEY.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

We recommend for adoption, the following resolutions:

1. We heartily congratulate the Board of Church Extension, and the Church-at-large, on the remarkable success of this work through a period of thirty years.

2. That our country, being new, with rapidly increasing population and unlimited resources, will continue to need Church Extension, in the future as in the past; and that our Church, by fostering and strengthening this work, will increase its own power to promote all forms of Christian and benevolent activity.

3. That we, as a Conference, will not be content with anything less than a full response to the call of the General Committee for our proper share in Church Extension, until, everywhere, in communities now destitute, the people shall have opportunity to "enter His courts with praise."

4. That our Presiding Elders be requested to apportion, with care, the full amount asked for Church Extension, to the several Districts and pastoral charges, for collection; and, that, availing ourselves of the help provided by the Board, and especially Christianity in Earnest and Glad Tidings, we will present this cause in all our churches, and endeavor to secure, at least, the amount asked, in accordance with the plan of our Discipline.

By order of the Committee.

A. W. Lamport, Chairman.
Somerville Light, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNAL.

We, the Committee on District Conference Records, submit the following report:

We have examined the records of the Richmond District Conference, and find them to be properly kept.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

Your Committee on Education herewith submit the annual report.

DE PAUW UNIVERSITY.

We rejoice to know that during the past year, in spite of the stringency of the times and the sharpness of competition, our University has had a substantial increase of students. At a meeting of the Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors, the Preparatory School was changed in name to "The Academy." The object of this change is to make provision for Normal and Commercial Courses, in addition to the pre-Collegiate Courses heretofore offered in this school. The College of Liberal Arts the past year has had a marked increase of students. The Schools of Music and Fine Arts are well managed by the scholarly dean, Miss Belle A. Mansfield.

We regret to learn, through the discussions of the past winter, that our private institutions of learning and denominational schools are placed at a disadvantage in the general management of the educational interests of the State. We recommend —

1. That our pastors use increased diligence in securing students for the University.

2. That every facility be afforded to Dr. Gobin in reaching our people and visiting our charges.

3. That the Presiding Elders be requested to appoint for each District one pastor, to be known as DePauw Educational Secretary, whose duty shall be to aid in furthering the interests of the University within his District.

4. That the Presiding Elders be requested to secure the appointment of a committee for each pastoral charge, to be known as the DePauw Educational Committee.

5. That W. D. Parr, D. D., be appointed Trustee, to succeed himself.

6. That J. A. Beatty be appointed Visitor for a term of two years, to begin September 1, 1897.

7. That E. F. Albertson, Perry Powell and C. W. Smith be appointed Visitors to the DePauw School of Theology.

8. That the annual Conference Visitors, M. S. Marble, S. Light and J. A. Beatty, be appointed to confer with the Faculty of the University with respect to non-resident theological work, and the teaching of the Conference Course of Study.

9. That $2,000 be apportioned, by the Presiding Elders, among the Districts, for the current expenses of the University.

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY.

This Methodist college, conducted under the auspices of the National Local Preachers' Association, is located within the bounds of our own Conference. We have listened to a report made by Rev. T. C. Reade, D. D., the president, and are convinced that Taylor University is doing a good and commendable work, especially in educating young men who are preparing for the ministry.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

The demand of the Church for a ministry fitted for the greatest efficiency makes it a necessity for young men to have a thorough training in theological studies. To this end we gladly recommend the following schools:

DEPAUW SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

This is nearest school. It is very closely connected to our Conference by many interests. We are pleased to note its efficiency for laying a broad foundation of theological knowledge, its thorough training, and its excellent corps of professors.

BOSTON SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

This is our oldest theological school. Its usefulness increases with the years. Its faculty is of an exceptionally high order. Its advantages are of the best.

DREW THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The able faculty and recent additional equipment places it among the first of the land. It has made a splendid record. While deploring the loss, by death, of Rev. George R. Crooks, D. D., LL. D., we are assured the work will be grandly carried on.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

The location, faculty, material equipment and direct connection with the Northwestern University, are worthy of especial note. We heartily commend the course in English as a move in the right direction, to aid those unable to avail themselves of the advantages of a complete course in Theology. We recommend J. E. Earp, D. D., and A. S. Preston as Conference visitors to this school.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We are pleased to note the splendid work the Board of Education is doing in unifying our schools and colleges, which federation will bring them under the closest fostering care of the church. And that nearly all the colleges have cheerfully accepted the standard of requirements formulated by the University Senate; the effect of this connectional supervision will certainly put our colleges to the front, and have a tendency to hold more of the young people to our denominational institutions. We are also pleased to note that the Board has also steadily pursued the work of aiding students, with most gratifying results. Last year 1,631 students, of twenty-five different nationalities, in 132 institutions of learning, were thus aided, sixteen of whom belong within the bounds of our own Conference. We recommend the faithful observance of Children's Day in every Sunday School, and that the disciplinary requirements be strictly carried out, and that a collection be taken in every school for this specific object.

A. W. Lamport, Chairman.
F. M. Stone, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The Epworth League, in its organization, growth and development, has been a marvel. In it is the future of Methodism. The Church will be stronger, purer, and more useful, because of the training given in the Epworth League.

Therefore, we recommend a closer identification of the League and the Church, making these young people to feel they are a part of the Church, and not an organization to themselves, simply to bear some financial burden, but to take part in the general work, and enjoy the spiritual life of the Church.

We heartily commend the spirit of the young people's societies of this Conference, in so fully identifying themselves with the Epworth League.

We approve of the general management of work, also the New Reading Course and the English Bible Course.

We would urge systematic benevolence among the young people of both Senior and Junior Leagues.

We sanction the efforts of our officers to secure regular attendance from all members of the Epworth League upon the usual Church services.

We would urge all pastors to organize Junior Leagues everywhere, when possible.

We recommend the Epworth Herald for every Christian home.

WILLIAM D. PARR,
J. D. CROAN.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

We, your Committee of Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, submit the following report:

This Society, by its history in the past thirty-two years, commends itself to Methodism everywhere.

It now owns forty-six institutions of learning, twenty-three of which are devoted to the education of the poor white people, and twenty-three of them to the Christian education of the American Negro, of whom more than one hundred thousand have been educated, over fifteen thousand being teachers in the public schools.

These institutions are sending out converted young men and women educated in the great and fundamental principles of morality, patriotism and loyalty, whereby they are enabled to wield a lasting influence for good in civil and religious life.

The African people are on the heart of the Christian Church, and are coming to the attention of the world as never before in the history of the race. No foreign field excites the same enthusiasm that the mission to Africa does, and now that the Corresponding Secretary of our Society has been elected Missionary Bishop, special efforts will be made to interest the African people in America in the work abroad, as never before. Remember, also, that we now have 600,000 communicants on what was once slave territory, and the work of the Society has come to be so important that we cannot neglect it without damage to the whole church. There will be 10,000,000 of African people in America by the close of this quadrennium. Two million dollars of real estate is owned by the Society, the indebtedness at the present time being $200,000, one-half of which could be paid in one year if all the churches would meet their apportionment. Because of this debt the schools must suffer, the teachers at the present time working on very small salaries.

This Society has the sole charge of the religious education of 600,000 communicants, living in a territory covered by more than thirty-five Conferences. Our people know so little of the great opportunities that lie at our doors to sow the seed that shall produce an abundant harvest. Wherefore, be it Resolved, 1. That we look with increasing disfavor on any tendency to diminish our work in the South, and that we urge collections in every church for this worthy cause, and solicitations for the endowments of our Southern schools.

2. That we commend the Christian Educator, which is published by this Society, as "containing more news about the South than any other one paper published."

3. That we accept the apportionment of $2,982 for the following year.

4. That we recommend an entire service for the presentation of the claims of this Society, and the use of its plan of service and collections.

5. That we will give this Society a more equitable proportion of the money collected for church benevolences.

6. That we invite the Secretaries of the Society to visit our respective charges in the Conference.

THOMAS STABLER,
PERRY E. POWELL,
J. W. PASCHALL.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance respectfully submit the following report:

1. The Christian Sabbath is one of the great bulwarks of our national liberties, as well as one of the fundamental conditions of the perpetuity of the Christian faith.

2. Every patriot, as well as every Christian, ought to view with alarm any tendency toward the destruction of the Christian Sabbath, or the substituting of a day of labor, of mere pleasure, or mere idleness.

3. The workingman, robbed of the Sabbath rest and driven to toil continually, is no longer a freeman, but a slave.

4. Sunday picnics, Sunday base-ball or other games, Sunday visiting, or lakeside gatherings, open Sunday beer gardens and like resorts, are but Satan's devices to cheat mankind out of the Lord's day altogether.

5. We, as a Conference, will cry out unceasingly, from our pulpits and through the press, against the various forms of Sabbath desecration.

6. We endorse the methods and aims of the Sunday League of America.

J. B. Alleman, J. H. Walters,
W. E. Murray, L. E. Knox.
J. L. Ramsey,

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

1. We, your Committee, urge upon our people the importance of our Sunday School work, embracing 33,000 schools, 353,000 officers and teachers, 2,600,000 scholars, and that it is the nursery of the church, in that 133,000 souls were saved through its instrumentality in 1896, for which the Father hath all praise.

2. We urge that great care be taken in the selection of officers and teachers, and that only those who are earnest, intelligent and godly, be placed in these responsible positions.

3. Let teachers' meetings and normal classes be organized (wherever practicable) for the study of the lesson and the training of teachers.

4. We urge that Methodist Sunday School literature only be used, and that the necessity of experimental religion be impressed upon all who are unsaved.

Resolved, That this Conference renew its declaration of accord, and its co-operation with the Indiana State Sunday School Association.

Resolved, That we recommend the organization of the Home Class Department work in all our schools, if practicable.

We recommend the election of the following brethren as officers for the Sunday School Society for the ensuing year: J. D. Belt, Prest.; A. H. McKee, Vice Prest.; W. S. Stewart, Secy.; Sylvester Billheimer, Treas.

J. W. Lowry, President.
E. B. Westhafer, Secretary.

SUSTENTATION.

We, your Committee on Sustentation, report as follows:

We recognize the fact of the great need of financial help, and we are highly gratified with the amounts raised last year.

We recommend that the amount of $2,000 be apportioned to the Districts for this year.

And we recommend the distribution of the amounts raised to the new and needy charges, in each District, by the Presiding Elder and his Committee.

J. B. Cook, D. H. Guild,

TEMPERANCE.

Believing that the saloon — licensed or unlicensed — is a moral pest-house, a place where manhood is debased, personal integrity is undermined, lawlessness is inculcated, where patriotism is deadened, love of country destroyed, and from which flows a constant stream of moral ruin and death; and, believing that we ought to pledge ourselves, therefore, to do all we honorably can to restrain and modify its power for evil, and never to cease our efforts until the fires in every distillery shall be withdrawn, and until a public sentiment is secured, such as will render it just as impossible for a saloon to exist in our territory as it is now impossible for one man to breathe here the air of freedom and remain a slave; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, declare, before all the world, that Christian men and women ought to be known always and everywhere as the relentless and uncompromising foes of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and that it is their imperative duty to wage a ceaseless warfare upon this question; and, while we accept restrictive measures, and while we indorse the "Anti-Saloon League," and while we re-affirm our approval of the "Nicholson Bill" and will aid in the enforcement of laws for the overthrow of the saloon, that we use them only as leading toward total abstinence on the part of the individual and absolute prohibition on the part of the State and Nation.

We call attention to the following:

"AN ATROCIOUS BUSINESS."

"The Cleveland Journal and Bulletin says that a gentleman of that city attended the meeting of the Ohio State Liquor League and took down in his note-book the following extract from the speech of one of the officers of the League:

"'It will appear from these facts, gentlemen, that the success of our business is dependent largely upon the creation of an appetite for drink. Men who drink liquor, like others, will die, and if there is no new appetite created, our counters will be empty, as will be our coffers. Our children will go hungry, or we must change our business to something more remunerative.

"'The open field for the creation of this appetite is among the boys. After men are grown, and their habits are formed, they rarely ever change in this regard. It will be needful, therefore, that missionary work be done among the boys, and I make the suggestion, gentlemen, that nickels expended in treats to the boys, now, will return in dollars to your tills, after the appetites have been formed. Above all things, create appetite.'"

COMMITTEE ON THE TOBACCO PLEDGE.

1st. We, your Committee, recommend that the Presiding Elders continue this good work until the whole lump of the North Indiana Conference shall be fully leavened and purified from the tobacco evil, now and forever.

2d. That the pledge papers be referred back into their hand until all delinquents shall have subscribed to the same, to be returned to the Conference and placed with our Conference papers for safe keeping.

3d. That, as a Conference, we now do ardently desire and request, for the good of the church and of the surrounding world, that the members of our churches do cordially come up with their ministers to the same line of economy, purity and righteousness, on this very important question.

Signed, R. D. Spellman,
N. H. Phillips,
S. C. Miller.

THE TRACT CAUSE.

We beg leave to suggest to the Pastors of the North Indiana Conference, that the Tract is an evangelizing agency, because: 1st. It is cheap. 2d. It may meet every condition and need. 3d. It is easy of circulation. 4th. It will be read when a book, small or large, will not.

We also urge that the pastors send for the Tract catalogue, select the best and send them out to preach.

The Tract Cause needs all the money asked ($765), and we recommend that the amount be apportioned pro rata among the charges, and that the collection be taken in full.

J. W. Lowry,
H. M. Johnson.

THE WOMAN'S HOME AND THE WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

We gratefully recognize the fact that the educational influence of the Woman's Home and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies, upon every interest in the pastoral charges where they exist, is very helpful to the pastor and the local church.

We also fully recognize the vastly important work done by these Societies in their respective fields of operation. Through these agencies homes are visited, ignorance is removed, distress is relieved, sorrow is assuaged, and the bread of life is broken to hungry souls. Therefore,

Resolved—1st. That we will encourage, from the pulpit and in the homes of the people, the work of these Societies in the pastoral charges where they now exist. 2d. That we will welcome to our churches any accredited representatives of either of these Societies, who may come with the view of organizing auxiliaries where none now exist.

W. H. Daniel,
J. W. Cain,
W. E. Murray.

CHRIST HOSPITAL.

Whereas, we have heard, with interest, from H. C. Weakley, of the great work of mercy being accomplished by our Methodist Deaconess Sisterhood, in Cincinnati, in his presentation of the missions and claims of Christ's Hospital, our grandest charity in the Ohio Valley; and, in view of the fact that a large portion of our Conference is in the natural patronizing territory of this humane institution, from whence patients are received, irrespective of their ability or inability to pay for care and treatment, therefore,

Resolved, That we most earnestly commend this worthy cause to the cordial and liberal consideration of these churches, and to our people generally, hoping for their hearty co-operation in its support and endowment. Also, that we will hail with joy the day when there shall be a North Indiana Free Bed therein, endowed in perpetuity.

Signed, Geo. H. Hill, C. U. Wade,
C. King, E. L. Semans.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the thanks of the members and friends of this Conference are due and are hereby extended to the Central Passenger Committee, and its representative, Mr. G. M. Farnhain, for the favors shown us in the way of reduced rates on the railroads.

Resolved, That the newspaper press of the city of Kokomo is entitled to our high commendation, for the very complete reports of the Conference proceedings, published in the daily papers.

Resolved, That we extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks to the Christian people of Kokomo, for the large and liberal hospitality shown in the reception and entertainment of this Conference, and for the generous invitation to return for our next annual session, also, in this city; also to our good brothers, Dr. W. D. Parr, pastor of this church, and Rev. D. H. Guild, of the Markland Avenue Church, for their rare thoughtfulness and care in anticipating and providing for every want of the Conference, and to the choir for the excellent music furnished at all our special services.

Resolved, That the favors shown us by the Howard and Citizens' National Banks merit our gratitude, which is hereby expressed.

Finally, Resolved, That to our beloved Bishop Merrill, who has presided so wisely, faithfully and graciously over this session of the Conference, our sincerest thanks are hereby extended. May our merciful Father long spare him to the Church in the continuance of health and strength for the discharge of the duties of his high office.

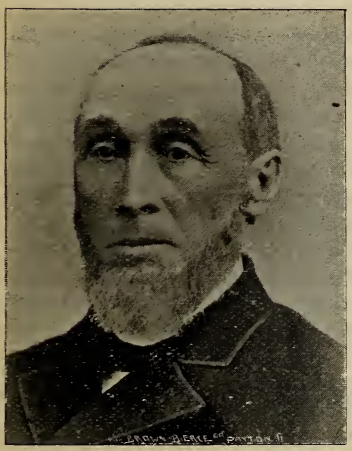
Obituary.

REV. ENOS POLLARD CHURCH.



Enos Pollard Church was born in Richland County, near Mansfield, O., June 12, 1824, and was of English extraction, being a descendant of General Benjamin Church, who came to America in 1751, and was a participant in the early wars of this country. In early childhood he was left an orphan in the world, by the death of his parents. The Hon. George M. Bartly, then Governor of Ohio, was appointed his guardian, and he was bound out, as was the custom of those days, to Mr. Richard Hoys, who proved to be not only unkind, but even cruel. After suffering an administration of cruelty for three years, and which he felt he could no longer endure, he ran away from Mr. Hoys, and found refuge with his guardian, who, while the Governor of a great State, was also a Methodist class leader, and proved to be a good friend and helper in time of need. He found a place for the orphan boy, with a kind-hearted Methodist store-keeper, a Mr. Williams, of Ontario, Ohio, where he remained for a considerable time. He afterwards learned the carpenter's trade with William Carr, and continued to follow this occupation until the time of his call and entrance upon the work of the ministry. The last piece of work he did at his trade was the building of a house of worship. He was united in marriage with Elizabeth Ann Thomas, April 20, 1843, who proved to be a true help-meet, in the struggles of life and in the work of the ministry. There were born to them four children, the third of whom deceased at North Manchester, November 2, 1860. The mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Church, departed this life in great peace, December 6, 1878. He was again married to Mrs. Mary Jane Zimmerman, September 1, 1881, who died October 2, 1893. The religious life of Father Church has been in many respects remarkable. He was converted at the age of eighteen years, on the 25th day of June, 1842, at a Methodist campmeeting near Lafayette, Ohio. The story of his conversion is best told in a selection from memoirs written by himself. He says: "It was Saturday, June 24, 1842. I seated myself by a small tree, well in the rear of the encampment, to see and hear as best a poor sinner could. At 1 o'clock P. M., Rev. Liberty Prentice, of the North Ohio Conference, arose and read for a text the 14th verse of the 5th chapter of Ephesians, 'Awake, thou that sleepeth, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.' The preacher was very impressive in his appearance, and with a full, clear voice did he set forth the dreadful consequences of the deadly sleep of sin, and the power of Christ to enlighten every man that cometh into the world. His own soul was moved for the perishing and dying. Some shouted for joy, while others cried aloud for mercy. But amid this sorrow and rejoicing there was neither tears nor joy for me. My heart was hard; I sank down in despair. In a strange and mysterious way I found myself at the altar. The altar exercises closed for the night; but, Oh, the darkness of that hour to me! To stay there, I could not; whither to flee, I knew not. But two faithful men of God told me that they would go with me wherever I wished, and would never leave me until God, for Christ's sake, pardoned my sins. Thus, with my spiritual guides, did I start for the woods, hoping there to find Him whom my soul desired to love. And there in the deep forest, by the side of a fallen tree, did we bow before God in prayer. Then would they sing, and Brother Smith would expound the Scriptures, and then they would pray again, and one more struggle in mighty faith and prayer brought me up out of the 'horrible pit.' I could then appreciate the sentiment of the 452d hymn: 'O, how happy are they who their Savior obey.'" He embraced the first opportunity to unite with the church, at a love feast meeting the following morning.

He was licensed to preach August 7, 1852, with Rev. J. W. Welch as his pastor, and was received on trial in the North Indiana Annual Conference, September 18, 1855, and was received into full membership in the Conference, and ordained a Deacon, in April, 1857, and was elected and ordained to Elder's Orders April 10, 1859.

In his active ministry, Father Church, with great acceptability and success, served the following charges for the periods named: Baugo, 1 year; Middlebury, 2 years; Benton, 2 years; North Manchester, 2 years; Akron, 2 years; Warsaw Circuit, 2 years; Leesburg, 1 year; Larwill, 3 years; Antioch, 3 years; North Manchester, 3 years; Middlebury, 3 years; Antioch, 2 years; Coesse, 2 years; Ossian, 3 years; New Paris, 3 years; South Whitley, 2 years; Larwill, 2 years, and was superannuated since the Conference of 1893. The period of his superannuation was spent with his children, during which time his health gradually declined until the time of his death, which occurred at the parsonage home of his daughter, Mrs. Rev. J. A. Beatty, on North High street, Warsaw, Indiana, October 23, 1896, at the age of seventy-two years, four months and eleven days.

Father Church was always deeply interested in the current history of his Conference, and in all the period of his active ministry, never missed a roll call. He manifested an unwavering interest in the deliberations of the Conference, and because of his depth of piety and devotional spirit, his brethren frequently conferred on him the honor of conducting devotional meetings, Conference love-feasts, and of acting on various committees. He was recognized by his brethren as an able and successful minister of the Gospel, having been instrumental in adding large numbers to the membership of the various charges he served. As a preacher he was clear, explicit, forcible; as a pastor, pre-eminently successful; as a citizen, loyal, patriotic; as a neighbor, kind, sympathetic, liberal; as a father, loving, merciful, indulgent. He was a manly man, true to his church in all things, calm, deliberate in his judgment, firm, unwavering in his convictions, but remarkably generous in his disposition. He was loved and honored by all who knew him, because of his many good qualities of head and heart. The excellency of his character, the consistency of his life, and the patient endurance of the intense suffering, which, in his later days, came upon him, endeared him the more to his friends, while he "endured as seeing the Invisible." He was happy in his life and work, yet not without great infirmity and pain of body in the past two years; but calmly and serenely, in the presence of his dear children, who ministered to him so faithfully, was his life-work completed. The wheels of mortality steadily and carefully slackened their movements, until at the set time, without a jar, they stood still, and the last traces of material suffering have been mysteriously transformed into smiles of quietness and peace; the soul and spirit leap from out the clay, and as birds set free, rise on exultant wings toward the skies. He said to his Presiding Elder, "I have had an experience of 54 years, but my experience will not save me; only Christ can save." And, "I have had one aim paramount through life, and that is to be at peace with God, at peace with my brethren, and at peace with all the world." His undisturbed peace was expressed in what he said to his son Chester: "We used to sing that old hymn, 'On Jordan's Stormy Banks I Stand,' but as I come nearer, I find there is no storm here, all is calm." Just a few moments before he died, he said, "Tell Ina to come here and sing." And in answer to this last call, his daughter stood by his side, and while weeping, sang, with supernatural strength, this beautiful verse:

"Oh, how sweet it will be in that beautiful land,
So free from all sorrow and pain;
With songs on our lips, and harps in our hands,
To meet one another again."

Three children remain to mourn this great loss: Freeman S., Chester W. and Ina M.

The funeral services were held at North Manchester, Indiana, and interment at Oaklawn cemetery, near that city.

MRS. ZERELDA FALL PIERCE.

Mrs. Zerelda Fall Pierce passed peacefully away from her home in Winchester, Ind., at noon, July 25, 1896, in her 61st year. She was in many regards a remarkable woman. The mother dying when she was but a child, left her without a tender guiding hand, yet her inherent strength of character urged her on to the full rounded completeness of noble womanhood. She had the advantages of seminary and college training. She was of that calm, philosophical temperament, where faith, most trustful, thrives. Small things could not perturb her. In great trials her hope never deserted her. Calm, undemonstrative, tender, loving, loved. She was an ideal wife — helpful everywhere — in educational work, in the active ministry, in great revival times, in society, in the home.

Her æsthetic taste was rare and singularly discriminating. Religion was far beyond a mere sentiment to her — it was her life. The Bible was a fountain of delight to her — sufficient in all that pertained to intellectual and spiritual life. She loved her church with an abiding love, and was making arrangements to leave to it the little property saved from the wreck of superannuation.

She was a great sufferer. Her nervous system was shattered. Insomnia, for years, waged its terrible battle against her and defeat was finally her's. Never perished a more womanly heroism.

She was a patriot in the true sense. She knew what it was to be a soldier's wife in the dark days of the civil war, bidding him go forth to battle for the Union. Coming into possession of the Memorial Colfax Badge of the last G. A. R. State Encampment, she proudly pinned it to her breast, never to remove it. It still lies where her fingers placed it to go with her to the grave in token of her love for her country and loyalty to "The Banner of Beauty and Glory," the symbol of an undivided Nation. It is appropriate, then, that the Stripes and Stars, which she loved so well, should have their place in "the funeral march to the grave."

She was co-laborer and fitting help-mate with her husband in the following positions: The principalship of Wilmington Seminary, presidency of Moore's Hill College, and professorship of Greek and Hebrew in the Illinois Wesleyan University. She served with great efficacy as teacher of Botany in the Fort Wayne College, and in the pastorate at Paris, Vernon, Delaware, Madison, Vevay, Dunkirk, Winchester, Goshen, Fort Wayne, Logansport and Cincinnati, Ohio. Her labors are ended. She has entered into her rest. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they rest from their labors and their works do follow them." Well might it be written on her monument, she hath done what she could. Loyal and considerate as wife, mother, church member and friend, we commit her body to the dust and her spirit to Him who has gone before her in the Gethsemanes of prayer and suffering, and with whom, by the triumphs of redemption, she stands a crowned immortal spirit in the mansion of our Father, for, "So He giveth His beloved sleep."

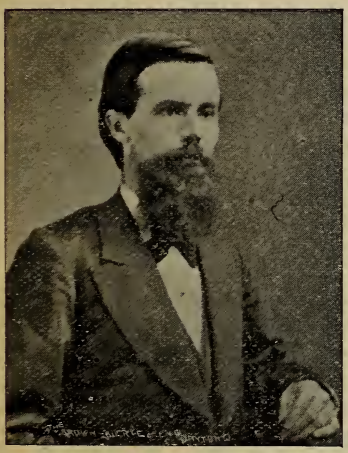
Funeral services were held at Winchester, Rev. George H. Hill in charge, assisted by other members of the Conference. The body was then taken to Tipton, Ind., where a short service was held, and the body was laid to rest.

REV. JOHN S. McELWEE.



The Rev. John S. McElwee, son of Jesse and Rebecca McElwee, was born in Preble county, Ohio, January 29, 1844, and died in Kokomo, Ind., August 2, 1896, aged 52 years and seven months.

At the age of fifteen years he was converted, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. When but eighteen years of age he entered the profession of school teaching, teaching part of the the time and attending school part of the time, that he might the more fully qualify himself for his chosen work.

In 1871 he was admitted into the North Indiana Conference, which met in April of that year, at Huntington. He was married to Laurinda Mathews, October 25, 1874. Three children were born to them, two of whom died in infancy. One son, Fred C., remains, the comfort of his sorrowing mother. After nine weeks of extreme prostration, while in his last pastoral charge — Yorktown -- he so far recovered that he was able to remove, with his family, to Kokomo, having been granted a superannuated relation by the Conference at its session in March, 1896.

On the 27th of the following July, he was again stricken down. On the 29th Rev. Dr. Parr, pastor of the first M. E. Church, at Kokomo, visited him and offered prayer. On being questioned by Brother Parr, Brother McElwee said, "Jesus is with me."

On the following Sabbath (August 2d), speech having failed him, with a look of unusual brightness, and, holding up his right hand, looking upward as though some bright vision was before him, he passed to his Heavenly reward at 11 o'clock P. M.

Brother McElwee served the following pastoral charges from 1871 to 1896: South Whitley, Milford, Osceola, Arcola, Harlan, SantaFe, Jerome, Point Isabel, New Waverly, Walton, Goldsmith, Westfield, Cicero, Bunker Hill, Frankton and Yorktown.

Brother McElwee was a clear and logical expounder of the Word of God, especially urging the Church to receive the doctrine of holiness, and in the beauty and order of his life he was an example to those whom he served in the Gospel. The gentleness and sweetness which characterized him in all his intercourse with the people, was a silent force which sustained his public utterances, and, as a minister of the Lord, gave him power with men.

His last ministerial act was to administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper to an aged lady and her family. Truly, a faithful watchman has been taken from the walls of Zion; a true brother has been taken from our ministry; a most affectionate husband and tender father has been taken from the home.

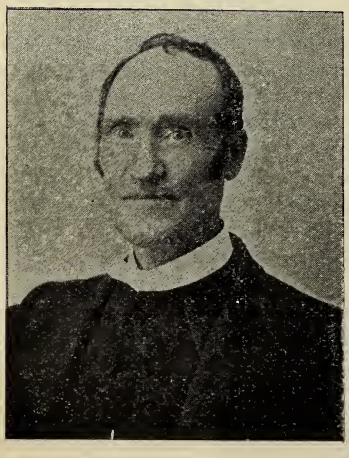
May our bereaved sister and her son ever find full consolation in the blessed Gospel which our sainted brother preached and so beautifully illustrated in a most symmetrical Christian character.

Our hearts are saddened at the separation from those who have stood by our side for a number of years in the battle for the right.

We miss their hearty salutations and generous words of cheer. We cherish the memory of their virtues and valuable services rendered to the Church they loved.

THOMAS STABLER.

REV. ADAM HALL CURRIE.



The Rev. Adam Hall Currie was born in the north of Ireland, January 14, 1836; died at Michigan City, Indiana, November 3, 1896. He came with his parents to Canada, when a boy of about fourteen years of age, since which time he made his own way through the world. He received his education and studied for the ministry in his Canadian home. Having grown to manhood, he chose for his life companion Amelia Jane Barrie, to whom he was united in marriage August 26, 1862. He entered the traveling connection in the North Indiana Conference, at Kendallville, in 1865, Bishop Scott presiding. He was ordained Deacon at Anderson, in 1867, by Bishop Ames, and was ordained Elder at Richmond in 1869, by Bishop Simpson. He was actively and consecutively engaged in the pastoral work from April, 1865, until August, 1895, at which time he resigned his charge at Windfall, to accept the chaplaincy of the Prison

North, which position he filled with great efficiency until his death. As a pastor he was regarded as a very able minister, and carried great industry and energy into all his work. He held to what he conceived to be the truth on all questions, with great tenacity, and was ever ready and bold to defend the right, and to oppose the wrong. During his ministry he served the following charges: Monmouth, 1865–6; Perrysburg, '67–69; Cicero, '70–71; Jerome, '72–73; Alto, '74–75; Sharpsville, '76–78; Xenia, '79–80; Orland, '81–83; Fremont, '84–85; Leo, '86–89; Harlan, 1890; Windfall, '91–92; New Britton, '93–94; Windfall, four months in 1895. He manifested great tact and skill as a church-builder, and, by his untiring industry and energy, built many churches and parsonages throughout the North Indiana Conference. The following are some of the churches and parsonages built by him: Jerome, Hopewell, Vermont, Currie Chapel, Hobbs, West Liberty, Pleasant Grove, Zion, and parsonages at Leo and Harlan. Of the excellency of the work done by Brother Currie, as chaplain of the Prison, most of us know from the reports that have gone forth at various times. He was held in the highest esteem, both by the officials and the prisoners. One of the guards told the writer that when the announcement was made, in the dining-room, that Chaplain Currie was dead, an audible sob swept through that vast room, expressive of the deep sorrow and sadness that was felt by those for whom he had labored so earnestly. As a further indication of the high esteem in which he was held, a letter, written by the members of the Christian Endeavor Society, which he organized while chaplain, was very touching and sympathetic. Brother Currie was a member of the Masonic Fraternity, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and of the Eastern Star. The high regard in which he was held by these orders was demonstrated by the attention shown throughout his affliction and death, and in their presence at his funeral. The community lost a loyal, patriotic, Christian citizen; the fraternities, an honorable member; the church, an able and efficient defender of the Truth; the family, a father and husband whose strong arm of protection and timely admonitions will be sorely missed. The funeral discourse was preached by Rev. M. S. Marble, Presiding Elder of Kokomo District, in the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Windfall. Revs. T. M. Guild, of Elwood, and J. F. Radcliff, of Sharpsville, were present, and assisted in the services. The orders of which Brother Currie was a member, participated in the funeral rites. The funeral called forth a large concourse of people. It was a day that will long be remembered by the people of Windfall.

*MRS. ELIZA COLCLASER.

Mrs. Eliza Colclaser, relict of Rev. Jacob Colclaser, was born in Lebanon, Ohio, January 6, 1822, and died in Goshen, Indiana, November 19, 1896, aged seventy-four years, ten months and thirteen days. Our Sister was married to our Brother Colclaser in the year 1845. She was always a faithful and helpful worker with her husband in the interest of the church. One child was born to them, which died at the age of five years. Her husband died December 24, 1885. She became very lonely in the latter part of her life, which was due largely to the fact of the loss of all the immediate members of her family.

Sister Colclaser expressed interest in the Church by giving to the Preachers' Aid Society of this Conference a property of several hundred dollars value. She has gone to join the happy host above. Her farewell to earth was her welcome in Heaven. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Asher S. Preston, assisted by Rev. B. A. Kemp and Rev. W. M. Nelson. She was buried in Oak Ridge Cemetery, at Goshen, Indiana, by the side of her husband and son, to await the day when "this mortal shall have put on immortality," and the redeemed shall sing:

> "Thy reign is ended, death; thou canst not sting
> In God's eternal summer land."

MRS. MARY ADAH (CHAPMAN) TURNER.

Mary Adah Chapman was born at Crown Point, Ind., January 29, 1862. Died at Valentine, Ind., March 5, 1897, aged 35 years, one month, and six days.

She received her education in the schools of her native place.

She was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1883, and was married to A. A. Turner, October 30, 1879, who entered the ministry as a supply on the Frankton Circuit, in 1889, entering the North Indiana Conference on trial at its session in Muncie, in 1890, and was sent to Point Isabel charge, where they served three years; then at Windfall two years, Centric one year, and one year at Valentine.

When Brother and Sister Turner entered the ministry she consecrated all her powers to the work of the church. Since they came to the Valentine charge she has been a great sufferer but she endured all with a patient and Christian fortitude quite remarkable. Her influence among her acquaintances for good was wide-spread, and with the young people she became a great favorite, and always used her influence to bring them to Christ. Her work in the Epworth League and Sunday School was earnest, helpful and faithful. Even when not able to attend the Sunday School, her class was taught by her in her sick room. Her voice was consecrated to God's service, and in song, prayer and earnest exhortation she used it to help in all the work of the church she loved.

She leaves a father and mother, seventy-one and seventy years of age, two brothers and four sisters, the most of whom were present. But the greatest burden of grief and loss falls upon her husband and two sons.

The church militant below mourn that one has fallen, while the church triumphant rejoice in the coronation of another added to their glorified host.

Funeral services were held at the Valentine church, Tuesday, March 9th, at 10:30 A. M., conducted by Revs. C. E. Disbro, H. A. Davis and M. F. Stright. Besides these, the following ministers were in attendance at the funeral: C. E. Davis, W. E. Grose, J. F. Fettro, A. H. McKee and G. C. Ulmer. The large attendance attested the esteem in which Mrs. Turner was held.

GRACE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH,
KOKOMO, INDIANA.

The Church in which the fifty-fourth session of the North Indiana Conference was held.

[Above cut loaned by Kokomo Tribune.]

Appointment Record.

APPOINTMENT RECORD.

The following Record is a continuation of that prepared by Rev. L. W. Monson, as found in his valuable Manual, and brought down to 1889. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in this century. In some instances no record is made of service in other Conferences, because of the lack of data.

H. N. HERRICK.

* NOTE.— Many pastors were evidently mistaken in regard to the meaning of this column, hence the great decrease reported — the "Home Department" in the heading being misleading to many. The column should include all members of the Sunday schools, and all members of the Home Department, who are church members or probationers.
